

Tony Palmer

Chief Legal Counsel

Anthony (Tony) Palmer is OHFA's new chief legal counsel. Prior to joining OHFA, he was the chief legal counsel at the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce (formerly the Ohio Department of Education) for three years. Tony served as the general counsel to the department, providing expert and strategic legal advice to ensure quality education and equal access to learning opportunities for all Ohio students. He previously held positions with the Franklin County Sheriff's Office, Alden Law, and Franklin County Prosecutor's Office. Tony received a bachelor's degree in political science from The Ohio State University and earned a juris doctorate from Capital University.