

Allison Russo

State Representative

State Representative Allison Russo is currently serving her fourth term in the Ohio House of Representatives representing House District 7, which includes Upper Arlington, Grandview Heights, and portions of Columbus. She is also the Minority Leader for the Ohio House Democratic Caucus, a position she has held since January 2022.

Prior to being elected Minority Leader, Leader Russo served as the Ranking Member on Health Committee. She also served as a member on the Joint Medicaid Oversight Committee, Finance Committee, Finance Health and Human Services Subcommittee, and the Ohio Housing Finance Agency. Additionally, Leader Russo was the Co-Chair of the bipartisan Legislative Children's Caucus, Policy Chair of the Democratic Women's Caucus, member of the U.S. Global Leadership Coalition Ohio Advisory Committee, and the State Council on Educational Opportunity for Military Children. Prior to joining the legislature, Leader Russo spent more than two decades advising government leaders and policymakers on issues related to the healthcare financing and care delivery needs of seniors, vulnerable populations, Veterans, and military families. Leader Russo is also a passionate advocate for women and families and is involved in many local civic and service organizations in her community.
